

Running Up

I'm running up the hill again
I won't give up my favourite game
I'm moving fast, can hear my veins
From all the past the dust remains

My feet are sore, my body's wet
She still wants more, I'm still not dead
I'm running up the stairs to you
I'll never stop 'cause I'm like you

Can't you see where the rivers flow?
She's with me, you should know
To the sea, that's where I would go
And dive in

I touch the wind and feel the sun
Did I begin to have some fun?
The slope is too steep, the wind too cold
I start to weep, your arms unfold

Can't you see where the rivers flow?
She's with me, you should know
To the sea, that's where I would go
And dive in

And dive in
